“ My most heartfelt condolences to Jay's family and friends. We were shocked and saddened to hear of Jay's illness and death. Jay was my first cousin and he and his brothers used to come and spend summers with us on the hill just outside Ravenswood. Such wonderful memories of the crazy things those boys did and got into. The memory that shines through the most was Randy and Larry always managing to talk Jay into climbing on top of our swingset and sitting on Larry's shoulders while Larry sat on Randy's shoulders - a triple decker - that always ended with the three of them tipping over and crashing to the ground. Every time. My sister and I worshipped our cousins but most especially Jay. He let us hang on him like little animals and never lost patience with us. I'm saddened that we all lost touch over the years. Rest in peace Jay, please hug Mammaw for me.

Our heartfelt sympathy.. A friend walks through our lives and with out realising we began gathering gifts. All the days growing up, building family-friendly relationships. Gods gifts, shared memories. These we had the privilege of and are left with ,recalling times back in our heart's. May the laughter and the joy in life fill the tears. May your memories with Gods love comfort you. Our prayers to this family always ,God Bless..
