“ My friend, my aggravator and agitator., but yet the one who would drop what he was doing to help me. He silently helped so many people. Loved children. Loved his hometown. Loved his friends. Loved his furbabies. And especially loved his Tribe! He was their Uncle Papa Jeff. So glad that we were in the same weirdos tribe, Jeff Frame. You one upped me this time, but just wait until we meet up again! Payback are h____! PPFFFFFTTTTTTTTTT!

“ Too many memories to even know where to begin?? Medic 60 partner... Tudor's biscuits... my one and only MVC in my life, and of course Jeff was on duty to come add to my embarrassment and make sure I was "appropriately packaged" for transport... talking online about these same good times past with Tony... facebook chatter and jokes always... and the opportunity to stop in and grab lunch earlier this year and catch up... He had posted a photo of himself in a red shemagh as a joke long ago, and he brought the shemagh to our lunch and gave it to me to use over here, saying he bought it on a whim and didn't need it at all but figured I could, and it's been quite useful to me more than once... A good man, a good partner, and a good friend, Jeff will certainly be missed very much.

“ Jeff and I grew up together on Monroe Avenue. Our families remained friends throughout the years and he and his family were amazing people. Jeff brought so much joy and laughter to so many people. I looked forward to his FB posts daily to bring a smile to my face.

His family meant the world to him. He loved them so much and missed them terribly. Caleb, Mary, and the "tribe" kept him grounded and he loved you all from the bottom of his heart.

I will miss you my friend.

“ *Sorry to hear of Jeff passing. I pray the family finds comfort at this sad and confusing time.
I only knew him thru the community Facebook Pages we helped each other administer.
We butted heads more than once but maintained a respect for one another and enjoyed our Community Pages a great deal.
His input and comments will be greatly missed by all.*

“ I have known Jeff for over 30 years. Over the years we may not have seen eye to eye but he could always amuse me. I totally am going to miss him. It seems strange signing on to Facebook and not seeing a post from Jeff regarding something interesting to read, interesting video, or voicing his opinion. I know with his Fathers death, he had became more lonely. There were frustration in not physically being able to do things like he once could. I had always hoped for Jeff to get married and have a family of his own. I know, he enjoyed his nieces and nephew. Hope he is having a wonderful reunion with his family.
