

Jennifer Lynn Neal

October 20, 1985 - September 7, 2019

Jennifer Lynn Neal, 33 of Huntington, died Saturday September 7, 2019 at Cabell Huntington Hospital, as a result, of a traumatic brain injury from a fall she sustained at a Labor Day weekend function at the home of her parents.

Jennifer was a loving daughter, sister, aunt and friend. Her family meant everything to her and she spoke with them daily, never missing an opportunity to tell them how much she loved them. She attended Blennerhasset Elementary School in Parkersburg, was a graduate of Capital High School in Charleston and attended West Virginia State University. She loved to exercise and was a gifted gymnast in her youth. Jennifer also loved to cook, work outside at her home, draw, dance, read and fashion. What brought her the most joy was helping others. She volunteered in many capacities over the years and always tried to “pay it forward” in small acts of kindness towards others.

She is survived by her parents; Jerry and Karan Neal of Hurricane; sister, Allison Neal (Matt Flowers) and beloved nephew Rylan of New Albany, Ohio; significant other, Terry Baker of Huntington; and her puppy Spooky.

Funeral service will be held at 2:00pm Thursday, September 12, 2019 at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane.

Visitation will be two hours prior to the service at the funeral home.

“ Jerry, Karan, and family we are so sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter Jennifer. The pain is unbearable and trying to understand why is something that can never be explained on this earth. Nothing can ease the pain in your heart but we Pray for Gods loving arms to surround you and bring comfort and understanding during this time.

“ Hold the memory of Jennifer in your heart. Remember her smile. Rest in the thought that Jennifer's healing is complete. For now she rests in the arms of God. Jennifer brought so much joy to so many. Her courage was amazing. Her faith made her know God would provide the healing she needed. Jennifer ran life's race and won. She fought the good fight with God by her side and won. Jennifer is at home now with our Lord. We know her new address and strive to make it our address when it's our time to "go home". Jennifer's smile has never been more beautiful as it is now. Celebrate her life and be thankful for this wonderful gift God chose to share with you. But know, she is well and walking with Jesus will make it easier for you. I am so sorry for your loss. And my heart is breaking for you and your family. And know I love you and I am here for you with Love and Prayers.

Love You
