“ I remember Jim and Shirley as High School Sweethearts at Clay County High School and later as Mr. & Mrs. James Moore. They were always honest, hard working and good Christians. Although our vocation and location separated us, I always remembered them. May God Bless Shirley and the Family as they continue on without Jim. We are distant cousins but were raised in opposite corners of Clay County.

“ I knew Jim from my days as a gas and oilfield worker. Jim and Jeff took care of my company vehicles over the span of 17 years. They also cared for my personal vehicles. Jim was the most honest and reliable repairman I have ever known. If there was ever a man better than Jim, I never discovered him. I came to know his entire family and he was a True Believer in Jesus Christ and he practiced that belief every day. The world lost a valuable human being in Jim. Shirley and Jeff, please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss.

“ I have wonderful memories of Jim. (Papaw Moore). Even though he was really pawpaw to Benji and Betsy, he was like a pawpaw to me as well since we all were so close. I will always remember his infectious laugh and smile and his love for Jesus and family. Much love and prayers to Shirley, Jeff, Ben and Betsy and the rest of the family💕
