“ Jimmie was such a special man and I loved him so much. He was one of the pillars of the church, Scott Depot Christ Fellowship, and was always helping anyone who needed him. Whether he was taking care of the church building itself or the people in it , he was faithful in all that he did. His pig roasts were always a favorite for our picnics too! His smile was infectious and to be with him always made you feel loved. He will be missed and always remembered with love.

“ I am so sorry for his death. We were great friends and talked a lot on the phone. When he lived in West Virginia, and after Chuck's death, he would call me to see if I needed anything done. He was so helpful. He and Chuck were great friends. They are having a great time in Heaven now!!! My Sympathy goes out to all of you. Love, Gaynor Chandler
