

Joan Phillips Boggess

September 28, 1941 - September 26, 2016

Joan E. Boggess (Phillips) of St. Albans, 74 went to be with her Lord after a long-illness on September 26, 2016 at the Arbors of Gallipolis.

She was preceded in death by her beloved Mother and Father Virginia B. Phillips and Zachariah T. Phillips, Jr.

She was proudly born and raised in Hurricane, and graduated from Hurricane High School in 1959. In her youth, she loved raising horses with her father, and enjoyed them and the music of Elvis Presley, as life-long passions.

Joan began the work, that she so loved, at Putnam County Schools in 1960, then worked for many years of dedicated service for the Union Carbide Corporation from 1960-2001 in West Virginia and Cary, North Carolina.

She loved and depended on the Lord, her God as her faith gave her strength and solace. Joan diligently strove for a job well-done at everything she did in life. Yet, gained her greatest joy from her family and work-family, devoting her life and happiness to them.

She is survived by her only child Amy R. Boggess of St. Albans; sister, Patricia E. Phillips of Dunwoody, Ga; brother, Zachariah T. Phillips, III and wife Kathy of Daniels and cousins; Stephen Bell and wife Donna of Winfield, Judy Bell of South Carolina, Eugene Bell of Michigan, Duane Bell and wife Sally of Indiana and Debbie Phillips and husband Phil of Lewisburg.

Visitation will be held at 11:00am on September 28, 2016 at Cunningham Memorial Park, Upper Mausoleum Chapel, with a service then following at Noon with Rev. Dr. Phillip Smith of Shady Springs, WV officiating. Burial will follow in the memorial gardens.
