

Joel Emerson Stover

January 3, 2012

Joel "Smokey" Emerson Stover, 66, of Fraziers Bottom passed away at his home on Tuesday, January 3, 2012. Born July 14, 1945 in Dunbar, he was a son of the late Joseph and Ruby Stover. Smokey was a member of Teays Valley Missionary Baptist Church and an avid outdoorsman. He was a self employed welder by trade and a U.S. Army veteran. He is survived by his daughter, Jessica Erin Stover and husband Brad Pierce of Brooklyn, NY; son, Joel Brandon Stover and wife Lauren of Albuquerque, NM; special friend, Brenda Shamblin of Eleanor, WV; brothers, Joseph "Bud" Stover of Lubbock, TX; Denny Stover of Hamlin; Jim Stover of Scott Depot; Jerry Stover of Dunbar and many nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be at 2pm Saturday, and visitation will be one hour prior to the service at the funeral home on January 7, 2012 at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane with Rev. Dr. John D. Smith officiating. Burial will follow in Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens, Cross Lanes. Military honors will be provided by the James Marshall American Legion Post #187 Winfield. Friends wishing to leave a memory or online condolences may also be made by visiting www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com. Chapman Funeral Home, 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane WV has the honor of handling Smokey's arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Joel Emerson Stover

October 06, 2023 at 08:41 AM