“ *Rose, Cindy, & John Eric, it is hard to lose a father, especially one who was as generous and kind and attentive as yours. Sam, we share your grief in the loss of a brother. We pray for the whole family that you will feel God close to you, speaking grace and peace and love to your hearts. We have lost a dear friend in John, and we will carry special memories of him forever.

“ I never called John by his first name. He was known to me as daddy I have got to know this great man by knowing his wonderful daughter Cynthia he was a warm soul and he had strong beliefs of family and always was a hard worker he was a giving man he told great stories of life's travels and Trials he made be feel special just by doing a simple thing of drinking out of a large pink coffee mug I gave him some years back that's the kind of man he was I will miss him greatly
