John and Kim Hall - January 22, 2018 at 08:37 AM

Dylan we love and miss you more than anything and we always will. We will think about you everyday for the rest of our lives. I don't know how to go through life everyday without you. You were such a special person to not only us and the rest of your family but also to everyone who knew you. You were beautiful inside and out. You were so kind and caring to us and your friends. Please know that we loved you more than anything and always will and we'll always miss you and think about you everyday for the rest of our lives. You were not only my son but also my best friend. You are our angel in Heaven. Our guardian angel. Love you forever and always baby, Mom and Dad.

“ Dylan we love you baby more than anything. And we always will til they we take our last breath. We have so many wonderful memories of you. We watched you grow up playing football (1 yr at age 6), baseball, soccer, and basketball. We had fun camping, going to the beach, Cedar Point, Florida, and many more. You and your Dad loved to go hunt together. We watched you grow into a caring young man who had such a big, caring heart. Caring more for others at times than what we thought you should. But we understand, that was just that caring heart of yours. We are so proud of all that you accomplished. When you got your degree from Bridge Valley was a very proud moment for us. And when you went to Colorado, we worried so much with you being so far away, but we were happy for you. I know you loved Colorado. And then your UPS job, you loved it. You mentioned that so many times. And you had fun with your co-workers as I'm sure they did with you too. Jax and Opie also loved their brother Dylan and miss you. Jax loved sleeping with you in the mornings and they both loved when you got home from work. We love you and miss you and always will. We will see you again someday. You were an awesome young man loved by us and so many more. I love you sweet Dylan and miss, forever. Mom and Dad

“ Dear John, Kim, & family, I wanted to tell you how heartbroken and sad we are at Dylan's passing. I know you all must be devastated and we're so very sorry for the pain you're going through. Dylan was a kind and caring young man and I sure thought a lot of him. I'll always picture him in his aqua and black soccer uniform with his beautiful, sweet smile. Sending you peace, prayers, strength and love for the days ahead. RIP, John Dylan Hall 💙

“ Kim, you and your family have been in my prayers since last Thursday. I also have others praying for you. I miss your laughter in the hallway here at work and I know that you and John as well as friends and family must be full of pain. Please know God is with you all. I will be out of town on Thursday but know you all will be in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you and if you just want to laugh about the things he may have said or cry call me. I am always here to talk and will continue to pray for you all. You never get over this but you can get through it and please use your friends to let you. No words I say can fix it just know that I love you and I will be here if you need me.

“ My sweet Dylan you were always like my little brother too. I remember babysitting you during the summer, getting us locked out of the house and having you crawl through the window to let us in. You didn't like getting in the pool as much as I did you preferred playing with your cars in your bedroom with your race track rug. You had a way of always making me laugh. You grew up to be such a handsome smart man but you will always be our little brother.

“ I remember the first time I met Dylan. He couldn't have been older than 11 years old. He seemed so shy. Him and Kim came to Linda Hardways house for one Christmas or something. We called him dill pickle the whole time lol. I wasn't but like 15 or 16 years old. That kid kicked my butt in basketball I think it was, on dream cast. Dream cast lol seems like it shouldn't be such a long time ago. I pray for Dylan's family, he was a cool kid. I didn't get to spend a whole lot of time with him, but my first impression of him was like wow I'm blown away!!

“ There will always be an empty place in my heart . we all were more like family. you were there for me my friends and im there for you. Any hour day or night. Remember yelling at him to get the litter out of the car. Lol no problem. Him and a friend had to prove how strong they were carrying several at a time. Laughing the whole time. I love him always and all of you. love you too Heather.

“ Dylan this is you aunt Dar .. I will miss you so very much. A piece of my heart has always belonged to you from the minute you were born and you have taken it with you. You were always such a good and kind person to everyone you met and I know you touched many lives. You were a true angel on Earth. I miss you terribly (our little Dill pickle) and I will love you forever. I know Uncle Dave, Noah, Brooklyn, and Garrett all feel the same. They loved you very much.

“ Dylan was a student of mine at McKinley Middle School in the sixth grade. He was a kind, funny, creative, and energetic young man. He was always anxious to start the day and always greeted me with a warm good morning. I can't imagine the grief that his family and friends are going through right now! He will be missed by everyone who knew him!

“ Sorry for your loss. Thinking about Kim, John, Linda and everyone. He was a very nice young man. Love Tony “ Dylan was always making me laugh, staying overnight with Colton at our house, having nerf guns, wars and the things he would come up with at middle school soccer practice! I am so glad he went out to Colorado and had that experience, a bold step for a young man, I know you missed him but was also very proud of him.

This has weighed heavily on my mind the last several days, my heart is broken for you guys, and I wish it was within my ability to express the sympathy and comfort I want you to know.

“ I love you so much baby brother, you are the best brother a sister could ever ask for. It breaks my heart that your sweet life wasn't as long as it should have been. I will treasure all the moments I did get to spend with you. You had the sweetest heart, to good for this mean world. I love you Dilly ❤️

“ Dylan Hall was a loving caring grandson. He loved his parents and his whole family very much. He was a homebody that enjoyed being at home with the security and love from his parents. I'm thankful for the grandmother grandson time that I spent with him after his car accident. We shared many thoughts and dreams of things he cared about and expectations of future things.
Rest in peace Grandson.
I love you and will miss seeing your smiles.
