“ I pray for comfort for Mr. Kasey's family. My mom, Betty Lou Smith, worked for Mr. Kasey for 25 years or more at Life of Virginia Insurance and she always spoke very highly of him. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Kasey on numerous occasions and I don't believe I've ever met another man as kind and soft spoken as he was. I remember going to her office as a little girl and he would always come out and say hello, and he did this every time I visited the office, throughout my adulthood and her tenure. I will always remember Mr. Kasey with a smile. May he rest in peace.

I pray for the children and grandchildren of Tom. I was a very good friend of Beth. Her mom and dad was truly special people. My thoughts and prayers to all of you. Once again I'm so sorry for your loss. God bless you all.
