“ *John was such a great guy! We have been doing business with John from back in the Olin days and have continued our business relationship with Clearon all these years. John and I would share stories and had a lot of laughs over the years. I truly considered him a dear friend and he will missed by many. Sending prayers to the Pelto family and friends. “ John will always have a special place in my heart. He took care of my daughter when she first moved to a new place and where she knew no one. He befriended her and looked out for her as a father would have. I will be forever grateful to him, Johnny, and Marah for the friendship and love they have shown to Coach Tiffany and John will be truly missed. To his family, you have my deepest condolences and I wish you all comfort and peace during your time of grief.

“ John was a very special guy. We knew each other from his days at Olin and beyond. Our companies did business together for decades so we got to know a bit about each other. John was a favorite of mine. We rarely saw each other but we talked a lot over the years about business, family, vacations, and hobbies. He made me laugh a lot and it was just nice to work with.

He holds a special place in my heart because early on he was A-OK about dealing with a woman in business while the majority of men in manufacturing had a hard time accepting a "girl". After one early conversation he jokingly asked "Who do you think you are, the boss?" "You betcha", I replied. Every phone call since then over 20 plus years I would pick up the phone to hear "Hey Boss!"

I am sorry for your loss.
