“ Though we didn't know each other long. Your warm smile made it seem like a lifetime. You were a good man who knew what he stood for and wasn't ashamed to show it. Rest my friend. Your journey here on earth is over, but your eternal reward has just begun. Congratulations to you and May God envelope your friends and loved ones in his blanket of love and comfort.

“ John always had a smile on his face and a true friend to all. I knew John from Hayes Jr High School on. We road in a car once with Tiny and Fonda as Tiny wanted to see if he could go 100 miles an hour on I64, from Dunbar through Cross Lanes! We were all just friends, but I remember John and I were scared to death....and so glad to get out of that car!! He was always so kind to everyone!

John and I were buddies back in the mid-60's in St. Albans. He was a fun guy and even then I remember him as a positive person, seeing the best in things. We played ball in the neighborhood and sold blackberries together and built a few "cabins" in the woods. I remember his family having the first window air conditioner I had ever seen and we would often come in from outside, hot and sweaty and just stand there and marvel at how good that cold air felt :) Folks on Facebook may have seen this, but I have a fond memory of John and I (11 years old) taking our blackberry profits and hopping on our bikes and riding to Young's Restaurant at the Gateway Shopping Center and ordering T-Bone steak dinners at about 4:00 in the afternoon. The place was empty and the waitresses just fawned over us...it was John's idea to "go big", and we had a few laughs about that episode over the years. He was just what you wanted as a childhood friend...
