

Joseph Azevedo

November 15, 1945 - August 9, 2016

To all creatures under Heaven, there is a time to be born and a time to die. Joe's time to be born was November 15, 1945 and to die on August 9, 2016.

He grew up on the West Side of Charleston and was a 1963 graduate of Charleston Catholic High School. Among his first work experiences were Charleston theaters, the Virginian and the Rialto. He worked at the theaters for about nine years, then the Charleston Newspaper for over a year. Joe was hired by C & P telephone, later became Verizon Communications, where he worked until retirement. After retirement, he worked off and on at the Mardi Gras Casino and Resort. Joe enjoyed bowling, going on adventures with grandchildren, and watching old Westerns. He was a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America, and Presbyterian Church of the Covenant in Hurricane, W.Va.

Surviving Joe are his wife of 21 years, Edith Seanze Strickland; children, Gwen (Mike) Secorsky of Sterling, Va., Amy Azevedo (John Flores) of Colorado Springs, Colo. and Holly Winell of Cross Lanes, W.Va.; step-children, Terry (Dee) Fogarty, Carrie (Chris) Chafin, and Erin (Richie) Poe; grandchildren/step-grandchildren, Richard (Hope) Winell, Jacob and Michael Winell, Samantha and Michael Secorsky, Avi and
