“ Many of my best memories from high school and college years involve Josh in some way. He's one of the truest and best friends I've ever had. We were opposites in a lot of ways, but I knew I could always count on him and that I'd always have a great time when I was with him. Neither of us was great at keeping in touch over the years, but every time we reached out, the other was there with a bad joke. It was like we were right back to those younger days again. It hasn't fully sunk in that he's gone. I love him and I'll always miss him.

“ I remember Josh when he and Nick were in middle school. Now Josh was a fisherman, he loved to fish. We would fish a lot of evenings up at Scary Creek where it came out into the Kanawha River or take off up to Sandstone Falls on the New River and spend the night fishing. He really loved his fishing. That’s how I remember him , a good kid who turned into a fine young man and father. Love and gonna miss you buddy.

“ Oh Josh. I love you friend. From many, many days and nights fishing, to Elk hunting in Colorado, Boar hunting in N. Carolina, skinny dipping in the New River, sending you off in Cross Lanes to fight in the war.....being the best man in Cameron and I's wedding....being voted "best body" and "biggest flirt" together, lol.....all those hunting memories. I can't believe you're gone. 🥺🙏 You were a special friend!! Thank you for your friendship and love. You will not be forgotten. 🙏🙏👍

Joshua, what a fine young man, good person in and out. Spent a lot of time with him and Nick helping us in our craft business just out of high school. We had some great times, truly felt like this one was one of mine, wonderful memories, beautiful person.
