You were one great teammate on our 4x400 track team at Hurricane. You were always smiling and always had the will to win. One memory I will never forget was our record time at Laidley. We celebrated together in the light rain that night. Stewart, Fauber, You, and Me.

“ Oh, Josh! I have so many memories with you in them, from our high school days to being young adults. One that makes me chuckle a lot is this little bit you used to do where you were pretending to be Prefontaine and eating chicken parmesan before a race (if you know you know) or the way you would dance to get us girls laughing. Most of all, I can remember your hugs and the way they made me feel. I knew you loved me, and I loved you. You were my brother once and always my friend. You will be missed so much!
