

Rev. Joyce Marie Adkins Connolly Th. D.

October 31, 1940 - August 4, 2024

Rev. Joyce M. Adkins (Connolly)Th. D. left this earthly world August 4, 2024 and now is dancing, singing and shouting praises to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords on the streets of gold. She lived a life devoted to Jesus, evangelizing and witnessing to everyone she met. She asked that if you have not placed your full faith and trust in God, do it now because a time will come when it is too late.

Joyce was born October 31, 1940 to the late Troy Lee and Stella Brown Adkins on Mud Fork in Logan County, WV. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her loving husbands: Ed Hartman, Bob Connolly, Gary Adkins and Richard Thomas. She has also gone on to meet her children in Heaven: Kim Hartman and Eddie Hartman; her sister: Bobbie Ann Markham; and brother: Mark Kisamore.

A coal miner's daughter, her father said on the day she was born, "I rejoice that my wife and baby girl are alive - we will name her Joyce!" Moving from coal camps to the big city, she graduated from Charleston High School in 1958. She was strikingly beautiful. She won several beauty contests in the Kanawha Valley and the State. She was featured in a few early 1970's movies - one of which was called "Little Laura and Big John."

Joyce became a lifelong ordained minister having preached in England,

Belgium, Martinique, and more than a dozen States. She was so proud to have earned her Doctorate of Theology, Master of Christian Psychology and Bachelor of Biblical Studies from Jacksonville Theological Seminary. She also studied at Liberty University and Broward Community College. Joyce had a host of lifelong friends and relatives which she called frequently until the day she passed.

Her greatest pride and joy was her family. She is survived by her Daughter: Sabrina (Jack) Fauver; Son: Steve Connolly; along with 9 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and dozens of nephews, nieces and cousins. Joyce is also survived by her loving Sister: Linda (Gary) Robinson.

“ I will miss your phone calls my sweet cousin. I know you are rejoicing in the Lord now and surely happier than ever and if I know you, you are still interceding for the lost. That was your calling here on earth and I'm sure your reward is great! Bittersweet tears here for me, I'll miss your visits and frequent phone calls. Love you, until we meet again. ❤️💔 Joyce Ann Browning Hill, your namesake.

“ Steven, I'm sorry for your loss, I know the hurt and what goes through your mind with the million things you wanted to do for your mom; but she was very pleased and happy with you and all that you did with Joyce your mom there are many memories you have some sad, but many wonderful memories,
I always enjoy the calls we had together talking about the Lord and praying for each other and those in on our hearts for a Godly break thought
I will truly miss your mom (Joyce)

“ Steven, I'm so sorry for the loss of your beloved mother. Joyce was a friend, as well as she and I sharing a grandson. We would talk about how blessed we were to have such a loving grandson as Patrick. I remember we would each want to babysit him and we would have to compromise as to when each of us could keep him. She was so very proud of you, and loved you fiercely. She was a great woman of God, and as you said, she would witness to everyone she came in contact with. We know she's having a great reunion now, and celebrating with Jesus.
