

Juanita Walker

January 31, 2012

Juanita Elizabeth Walker, 81, of St. Albans, WV passed away Tuesday, January 31, 2012 at Hubbard House Hospice, South Charleston. Born February 14, 1930 in St. Albans, she was the second of eight children born of the late Robert Harvey and Harriet Cain. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Wallace R Walker and brothers James Harvey and Nathan Edwards Cain. Juanita gave her life to Christ at the age of 18. She devoted her life to serving the Lord and was a faithful servant all of her days. In her early walk with Christ, Juanita was an active member of Faith Missionary Baptist church. Later, she was a devoted member of Cross Lanes Bible Church where she continued to sing in the choir, teach women's bible classes, and work with the children's ministries. Juanita was active in the community, witnessing and delivering the message of God's love through song and scripture. She would volunteer and sing at the Hansford senior citizen center. Juanita was an avid lover of music, and a lifelong learner and educator. She was also blessed with the gift of a green thumb and loved to work in the yard and raise beautiful flowers. Juanita is survived by her children, Rita Walker and Mia Annette Walker-Brewer; five siblings Eugene Cain, Harriet Harris, Carol Claytor, Glenn Cain, and Ramona Jackson; two grandsons Micaiah David Smith and Robert Jamar Brewer; and a host of nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and nephews, and countless friends. Funeral services will be held at 11:30 am Saturday, February 4, 2012 at Cross Lanes Bible Church, 5442 Big Tyler Road, Cross Lanes, WV with Pastor Dave Buckley officiating.

Entombment will be in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans. Friends may visit with the family one hour prior to service at the church.
