“ Judy (in my memories) will always be the prettiest, funniest and most wonderful aunt a person could have. While in her teens she enjoyed American Bandstand, telephone calls and poodle skirts. As her oldest niece, I always looked up to her with great admiration. She was generous with her time and her kindness. She was the person who took my brother and me to see our first movie "Bambi". Afterwards, she treated us to ice cream. To some it probably doesn't seem like much; but, Judy, I thank you for the generosity and kindness you always showed to me. Your generosity and kindness impacted my life in such a positive way, that through the years I enjoy the gift of taking children to movies and ice cream...each time, I remember you. I love you Judy.
