“ Dear Lisa and family, I have many wonderful memories of working with your mom and then with you. My heart was immeasurably touched when she gave a poncho to my daughter who was very pregnant. She was having difficulty finding a coat that would cover her growing tummy. When I saw your poncho, I knew that was the perfect solution. I asked you where you got yours from. You said, your mom and you would ask her for me. The next you brought a brand new poncho to me for her. It certainly kept her and the little one warm. When I think of your mom, her kindness and generosity and greatness as a teacher barely touched her beauty. She was a true blessing to all who knew her. ❤️🙏
