“ June/Jay were first friends of Gerald/Betty to welcome me when they brought me home. Biscuits and red eye gravy. Playing June's piano until I got one at 12. Training Buck-a-roo, not winning his graduation dog show and June patting me all way home as I cried. English papers. June always had encouraging words. A true lady. In more recent years, she loved to hear about Christian and always told me what a great job I was doing in raising him. I'll especially miss those uplifting talks with June. I love you June and one day we will talk again.
