“ To Howard and to Karen's mom: I had the privilege to get to know Karen when we worked at Montgomery General before she and Howard were married, and she always brightened up everyone's day with her beautiful smile and lovely personality. The office staff had a wedding shower and most of us attended the wedding, and that's when I met Mrs. Tully. We were friends, and even though we lost touch as our lives took separate paths, Karen was always thought of with a smile and a sense of loss that she wasn't part of our lives any longer. She was one of those individuals that enriched the lives of others.
