

Karrie Ann Rogers

September 10, 1958 - August 29, 2014

Karrie Ann Rogers, 55 years young, of St. Albans, formerly of Toledo, Ohio, went home to be with the Lord Friday, August 29, 2014 with her husband, John and grandson, Jonathan by her side.

She had fought a long and hard battle with COPD.

Karrie was preceded in death by her grandson, Thomas Jacob Zacherias; mother, Kay Hedrick; father, Paul A. A. Ball; mother-in-law, Geraldine Rogers; sister-in-law, Penny Rogers and a man she considered her father, Donald Jacobs.

Karrie leaves behind to cherish her memory, her loving husband of 19 years, John Rogers; three children, Tina Hurst, Chris Eck and Sara Eck all of Toledo, OH; two step-sons, John and Bobby Rogers of St. Albans; 14 grandchildren and three step-grandchildren.

A celebration of Karrie's life will be held from 2-4pm Friday, October 10, 2014 at Ten Up Ministries, Coal River Road, St. Albans.

You may visit www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com to share sympathies with the family.

Information submitted by Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans, WV.

“ *We will have no happiness ,only times contempt.
We will have no ending...to our time unspent.
There will be no moving on...
Cause a life has diminished...
For that life I will continue to write...
Cause our story will never be finished..i love you mom xoxo*

“ It seems I spent a lifetime trying to understand your position...
pretending to talk to you...cause you wasn't there to listen...
it seems I spent a lifetime wiping away my own tears..
side stepping through my childhood trying to skip through the painful years..
It seems I spent a lifetime pretending not to care..lost in my own mind..
but in my heart I could find you there..
It seems I spent a lifetime not knowing what to do...
when all I ever wanted was to feel loved by you..
It seems I spent a lifetime..living a lifetime of your solitude..
and after all these years I got to see the truth...
when I seen my moms face..all my pain was uncovered..
tears exposed as my pain magnified
all the past years of my struggles... you taught me to stand up for myself..so it hurt to see you so weak...
you said everything is going be alright chris...
but i can see on your face... you welcome defeat..
and now that your gone I feel so alone.. to deal with a lifetime of tomorrows..
and without you here... its only me alone to deal with my sorrow..
dedicated to my mom karrie ann ..from your only son...gods speed travel with peace, gods grace and my unconditional love in your heart.

“ I promise i will take care of your son until the day he comes to join you. Im sorry we never got to meet but i know one day we will. I've heard many great stories about you and how wonderful and kind hearted you were. Heaven got the most wonderful angel the day you left this world and i know your watching down on your children and grand children. Rest in heaven karrie.

“ Dear Lord,
please help me to understand why my lovely sister, Karrie had to go help me to see her, happy and In your arms, safe In heaven with you dry my tears with your hands, and fill my heart with your love let her know that I love her, always will always have and that I hope for the day when I can be with her like sisters should let her know that she Is In my heart, never will It go old of her spirit and that I mourn her absence, and pray for understanding Lord, let me understand that You have a greater plan I feel her so close, yet so far away

Thank you
