“ Dear Bobby, Becky and Kathy,
I am so sorry to here of the passing of your mother. Please accept our sincere condolences. She was a wonderful lady and I will always remember when I was taking care of my folks on Elliott St., and she was still driving, she would stop and chat a bit if she saw me out in the yard. Always in good humor and smiling!
Take care, Jim and Trudi Nelson

“ I remember the first time i met Aunt Kay was also my first time in West Virginia with Joe and our twin baby daughters. Aunt Kay could sense the fact that i was s little overwhelmed by all the family and she pulled me aside and told me if I had any problems with any of them Uncle Bob would handle it for me, so I was not to worry LOL. She was a kind woman with a big heart. rest in peace Aunt Kay you will be missed! My condolences to all the family! Sabina Turner, Colorado
