“ One of my many memories with Kay.
We worked together at Bellaire. She came into the salon and said, Terri you need to look at the ragtop on my car. It's coming apart at the seams! So we went outside and looked at it. I said, I don't think I can fix that. She says "sure you can Terri, you can fix anything! That's what you do, fix things!" So....I got the stuff that very day and we fixed it together the following day! We laughed and spoke of that day often.
Her ragtop Cadillac! Such a beauty it was, she was so proud of that car.

However, her greatest pride was her Children and Grandchildren. Kay would share the times raising her children with such a glow! The same glow she had when she spoke of her Grandchildren. Her way of saying things always gave me a chuckle. Her smile and great sense of humor was amazing. I will truly miss her but have many many memories, that will always make me smile.

“ What a funny lady. Worked with her at Dr.Eakle's office. Told her about the buffet at Thanksgiving she liked it so much I think she went the next year. Enjoyed her stories of family. In our hearts for now. Sharon Wolfe
