“ So hard to believe you are gone. I will never forget the love you gave to Kaylee and this family. Your smile could light up a room. As the saying goes some people are only meant to be in our lives for a season. But oh what an impact you made on ours. Love you Keagan.

“ Oh all the memories of keagan and dylan growing up together...staying the night with each other and always fitting the bikes in the cars, throwing ham on rians face and just seeing the happy smile on your face at the baby shower for baby Kaisley were only some of the good times. We all love you and know you are in a better place right beside your momma, but our hearts will forever hurt for you here on earth.
