“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one is truly heartbreaking. I want to take just a moment and share a scripture that has given me much comfort and hope. Isaiah 25:8 says "He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe every tear from their eyes." Very soon God will bring an end to death forever and bring back to life those we have lost. What a wonderful promise and how we long for that day.

“ I met Kenny in 2013 on a church trip to Union Mission. He touched my heart. We kept in touch on facebook, but now I wish I had kept in touch with him more often. I will remember him working in the kitchen, playing softball and singing. He was a gentle giant who gave the best hugs! I know that he is with our most precious Lord and we will see him again. My prayers go to his family and all of his friends that are missing him.

God bless

I only just a couple weeks ago met Kenny through work. What I met was very nice young man. If you needed something that was to much to handle he was right there to help. Hard working always joking smiling. Had just couple talks with him and never judged anyone. By seeing people and things I have read looks like Heaven getting a real good deal. I am so sorry for the family and close friends. Just know his life has not ended it's only just begun. Fly Big Guy and thank you for being in my path wish it been longer but I understand you have bigger things to do.
