“ I'm so sorry to hear of Kenney's passing. He was very special. There were many Saturdays when he and the rest of the guys would come up my Mom and Dad's house. They hunted, fished, played cards, told stories (some were pretty tall) and laughed a lot.

“ Kenney was a best friend/father to me in my teens. He taught me how to hunt, fish, and along with his brother Larry, how to love the outdoors. He was possibly the kindest person I ever knew. so sorry Sandy. My best to you and the Joyce family. David Lee Shingleton

“ One time the refinery had everyone shut off for allocation reasons. K.R. took one of his famous pies to the terminal to the Marathon crew and we were able to get a load of fuel when no one else could because of his pies! He also had the best garden! Seneca Dancer sweet corn and broccoli!

“ Back in the Forties and Fifties, on Sundays the whole big family would gather on the Joyce farm over the hill on Big Scary. There was food, aunts and uncles and more cousins than you could count on all your hands and feet. One memory that I particularly hold dear is the making of ice cream. The boy cousins, Kenney would have been an important member of this crew, would crank the ice cream freezer. When one boy would get too tired to keep on another would step in to take his place. There were plenty of boys for the job.

*Love and Prayers to all,

“ To Sandra and all of Kenney's extended family and siblings I am sorry to hear of Kenney's passing. Fond memories of all of us getting together when we were just little folks at Maw & Paw Coyner's old log home place and some of our blessed reunions in the valley in later years. I have pictures of those times and cherish them. Only Shirley, Kenney, Larry and Bonnie are in an old one from the old log home. They were some of Mother's keepers..

You are in my thoughts and prayers.
