“ Cousin Larry was one of a kind. In addition to his middle name, he got his love of railroads from his dad, my Uncle Quentin. He inherited charm, an open mind and a great sense of humor from both Aunt Ruth and Quentin. I am sure Grandpa Jarvis will not hold it against Cousin Larry for becoming a Baptist! Rest in peace dear cousin. You are missed. So sorry Sue for your loss.

“ As I remember our cousin Larry had a hard time staying in one place. That is to be expected after a long railroad career. One summer he came to visit my father in Northwest Florida. He had not been there very long when he suddenly jumped up, got in the car and drove us up and down Highway 98 taking in the sights (There were not that many back then!) I thought good Lord, it must be those railroad days and keeping on the move were part of his nature. He just liked to keep moving. He loved my father, Garland Jarvis, and spoke of him with such admiration that it warmed my heart and stoked my memories. Farewell Larry, we know where you are going and its gonna be up, not down. A loving man.
