“ Aunt Alberta was always there to cheer us up. When we were little she visited and brought surprise gifts into our, sometimes sad, young lives. When Les, Brenda and I found out our mom was dying, each of us called her, not knowing the others were doing that. That is comfort. She wrote encouraging words and Scripture to our Mom during that time, and it helped so much. She put up a sign with a big monarch butterfly on it in Grandma's front yard that said 🦋"Home At Last" 🦋 when we came there for our mom's funeral. She would come visit us, and always be there to add Joy To our lives when we visited West Virginia. Now she is 🦋Home at Last🦋 and all her suffering is over. That fills our hearts with joy for her, though we must miss her for a while longer. A Loving Niece, Sue McAlister
