“ Knowing Leonard for several decades has truly been an honor. His dedication to his customers is one of his many attributes. You will truly be missed. As we cross through those Pearly Gates and look across the sea of golden halos, only one will stand out from all the rest. You see, that one will be chrome. Good bye dear friend.

“ Leonard was always one of my favorite people. He always kidded me about waiting on me to get remarried. He was one of a kind. I consider myself blessed to call him my friend. I think of him every time I am in St. Albans. To his family, please know that he was loved by many and always worried about others before himself. I shall miss him. Sending prayers of comfort to you. His family meant the world to him.
