“ The Bird and Sovine family,

*I am so very sorry for the loss of Linda. We had such good times playing together in Hurricane when Mildred and Emzie lived there. We had many sleepovers and Camden Park trips. Even if we hardly seen each other as we got older, and the family drifted apart. I Weill always treasure the good times we had ,and memories of Linda. We were only seven months apart in age, Lina was my very first friend. I know Linda will always be loved and remembered but everyone!

“ I have many fond memories of Linda and attending Ada Baptist Church with her and her family. The last time was recall seeing her, she helped Mom (Fannie Disney) and I finalize some banking business. May God's peace surrounding Vernon, her children and grandchildren today and in the days to come. May comfort be found in knowing she has received her great reward.
