“ I remember years ago when the choir was on the left side of the Church and Armor Sayre was the Pastor and Kay standing in the front row of it and singing the song that had in it " I'll be a friend to Jesus" in it so now I'm sure she is with the Lord and can be His Friend I will miss seeing her when I come to W V she was a Blessing to me as all the folk of Mt Union are. May the Comforter hold the family close as they mourn the loss of their dear loved one. Kay will be sorely missed. I loved her hard work, her down to earth philosophy on life and morals, and her wonderful sense of humor. I still chuckle when I think of her funny stories. We are deeply saddened by her leaving too soon, but are looking forward to that Grand reunion Day!
