“ I was raised down on John’s Creek Road in Milton, WV. Lonnie would come down to our neighbor’s barn (Hack Wallace) every Sunday trading for a horse or telling stories. That how I met Lonnie and when I would see him out he was always asking how are you doing and what my two brothers were up too. Lonnie was a very nice, friendly guy. Heaven definitely gained an angel, Lonnie Sovine

“ Papaw,

I cannot even explain how thankful I am that I had you. I think about you everytime I pass Wheelersburg and the flea market. I think about you every time I ride my lawn mower, or have a super donut, and with every pan of cornbread I make. Extra butter. 😊 Tell Mamaw hello for me, I know how happy you are to see her. ☐ I'm going to miss you so very much. See you on the other side, Papaw. I'll bring you a molasses cookie. 🍪
