“ Ms Henderson was a wonderful neighbor and friend. She was the sweetest woman and I enjoyed the few special talks we had together about our neighborhood and just life in general. She was a wonderful Christian influence to me... I will miss seeing her out walking with her daughter Mary Cae or the caregiver with those big hats on! Thought it was fantastic that the family still let her drive on occasion; she lived her life to the fullest! I admired her as a beautiful older woman, fellow nurse and kind, caring soul. Rest in Peace Sweet Lorraine we will certainly miss you.

“ I'm so very sorry to learn about Lorraine's passing. Such a beautiful spirit and loving servant of our Lord. I'm sure Dick and Bill were there to meet and greet her with our Father and rejoice together in eternal joy and rest. My heart and sympathy are with all the 'kids' and grandkids as you celebrate her wonderful life and pay tribute to many wonderful memories. May God comfort and keep you all in His loving care and grant you peace. Love to you all.

“ Though she was tiny
She was fierce
Her prayers a force to be behold
The enemy shook when she went to her knees
I think Satan knew she whispered in God's very ear
Her arsenal of scripture paralyzed his attacks
What a privilege to pray with her and call her friend
