“ Oh how we loved and always will love our Miss "Dynamite" Lucy!!! You could not help to fall in love with her from the first time you met her. To here her share her love stories of both her husband and with Jesus Christ would melt anyone's heart - we will treasure all the memories! Thank you for blessing us with your presence and with your beautiful smile. We will miss you most definitely but know you are dancing now!!! One sweet and glorious day, we will see you again. Until then, we will continue the Great Commission of leading others to Jesus!

God bless all the family and thank you for all you do in our lives! You all are so special to us and if you need anything, we will be here.

*We love you!

Part of my heart goes with her. I can feel the pain but also the joy for the life she lived and most importantly the life she is now living. Her time of sharing, loving, and teaching us is not over. Her laughter and voice still ring in my ears.
