“ Luke was a person that loved all children and all children loved him. You never saw in a bad mood. After the Chevron sold some of his many hobbies included woodworking. This included building a deer stand ,coffee tables and much much more.planting trees on the family farm, and making trips to and from Kentucky where he bought and eventually sold a huge working farm. There he met Donnie and Beverly Robinson who would become part of his close knit circle of friends. Billy Mccallister also is included in his long list of friends. Billy was and continues to be a great attribute to the Whitt farm. He will be forever in our hearts

Deb, Luke will always remain in our thoughts and memories. Dad talks a lot about their childhood together on Cow Creek, fishing, hunting and being on the Hurricane Volunteer Fire Dept. most of all the times they spent up in the hill just talking. I never got the chance to thank you for the help when my mom passed away, but please know it was very appreciated and we all know Luke had a part in it also.

“ The nineteenth of February, Two thousand-eleven Luke stopped by . He had a piece of paper in his hand . Nothing out of the ordinary I thought.

He unfolded it and made sure the paper was turned where I could see it clearly. He then calmly stated "Deb I said this today " He went on to say he'd reread twice making it three times total This is what was on that precious paper:

*Dear God,
I confess that I am a sinner. I do believe that Jesus Christ died for me to pay for my sin debt and the best I know how, I trust in Him now and receive Him by faith as my Saviour.*

“ On February nineteenth of two-thousand eleven Luke came to visit. This particular day he had a piece of paper in his hand. I didn't know what it was . I still have that paper and it 's dated.

On it was a prayer which he calmly stated he'd read it three times in a row. It simply told a person how to accept Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

He then said "here it is Deb"and proceeded to hand me that thin piece of newspaper which he'd brought with him That will always be a great memory.

Dear God,

I confess that I am a sinner. I do believe that Jesus Christ died for me to pay my sin debt and the best I know how, I trust Him now and receive Him by faith as my Saviour.

Condolences to the Whitt family from the "Arnold Boggess Family." There are so many memories. Luke always buying me (Sarah) peanuts from the vending machine at the service station on the corner of Main St., at the old bridge, and then at the Chevron. Dad loved going to the station and hang out with the clan and catch up on the latest around town. Luke, Freddie, and Dad off to a County fair with cattle in tow. Also, numerous trips to Luke's hunting camp. I'm not sure Dad hunted; think he was the cook, but sure enjoyed the trips with friends. Last, but not least, Luke's generosity to Putnam County 4-H was so great and much appreciated.
