“ Madge was a gift to me from God. She always welcomed me with joy and a perky smile. I knew her from our church family however got to know her on a deeper level through Stephen Ministry. She loved her boys so much and the families attached to them. I felt like I was with my own mom each time I was with her. Madge liked golf ,Florida, friends and church. That was exactly like my mom. My last visit was Christmas Day and I knew for certain she was ready to go to heaven. I am so happy for her.

“ She was a sweet lady and always had a smile. She kept our son Rich, for 10 days one time while we went to Israel. Then later in years, Rich was the dining room Director where she was at that time and he got to see her on a regular basis. May she truly Rest In Peace. 🥺🥺
