“ Mae Rose was the sweetness and most caring person I have ever known or will know. She sacrificed much of her life so that family and friends could have and enjoy the good things. Oh how I remember the Rook games at her house with Paul, Teddy, Marion, Glenna, Libby and I. She kept us all in line and made it so much fun. Most of all, I remember how she looked after me after my mother died and I was so alone. She stepped up and filled in like the thoughtful and caring person she was. Made sure I got up in time for school, packed my lunch, and all the other things required by a thirteen boy. I just wish I could have spent some time with her in these last few years, but that wasn't possible and I will miss that sweet voice I heard every time I called.
