

Margaret Canterbury

Margaret Lea Canterbury entered this world on October 4, 1946 and left for heaven on May 23, 2011. God called her home when she heard the bells ringing and a crowd waving her on. She had suffered from cancer for several years. Margaret was a graduate of St. Albans High School and a member of First Baptist Church of St. Albans. She loved her church and church family. She worked in the baby nursery, taught third graders, was involved in Mission Circle and had served as chairwoman of the Deaconess. She was retired from McJunkin Corporation. Her greatest love was her grandchildren, whom she loved nurtured and embraced. She was preceded in death by her father Bearl Phillips; sister, Jeannie Phillips; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Canterbury; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Ora L. Phillips. She had many other family and friends waiting for her. She is survived by her loving and caring husband Raymond Canterbury; sons and daughters-in-law, Sean and LeaAnna Canterbury of Ashford and Brian and Carissa Canterbury of St. Albans; mother, Margaret Perry Phillips of St. Albans; brother and sister-in-law, Kim and Nancy Phillips of Charlotte, NC; sister-in-law, Joyce Waldron of Cross Lanes; grandchildren whom she dearly loved, Tristan, Hunter, Reagen, Alexandria, and Brian Canterbury; niece, Ashley Canterbury; nephews, Ryan and Evan Phillips and Nick and Jerry Waldron. Funeral service will be held at 11:00 am Thursday May 26, 2011 at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans with Pastor Jeremy Myers officiating. Burial will be in Cunningham Memorial Park, St.

Albans. Friends may visit from 7-9 pm Wednesday at the funeral home.
