“ I am so sorry to hear about Margaret's passing. Her and Jim, were like a "second set of parents" for me, I spent a lot of time with the Dotsons, and she is sadly missed. May God Bless!

“ Kathy, I was so sorry to see your Mother's obit in the paper. If you remember Lynn, my daughter and I met your Mom at Bob Evans a a few years ago and had lunch on our trip to WV. That is when I met you. Your Mom and I lived with other friends in the 50's before she and Jim were married. In fact, they stood up with us when my husband and I were married in 1950. I have many beautiful memories of her and send my best to you and your family.

“ Margaret and Jim were always kind and encouraging to me from childhood in Rand and into adulthood....I will be forever grateful for the love they shared with me. Margaret was there to comfort me whenever Charlotte at eleven years old was diagnosed with polio and I was alone (I well remember the blue wool sweater we got wet with tears as she rocked me).... she and Kathy were there at Charlotte's graveside service many years later whenever my health did not allow me to travel back to be there with the rest of our family whenever she died. Thank you for caring, Kathy; and God bless you and the rest of the family and friends who will miss her so much. I am sad at her passing, but I believe we will meet again where there will be no more sickness and death! A host of people from that little community are already there with Jesus.

“ Dear Jerry, Ken and I want to send our condolences on the loss of your mother. Our love and prayers for you all as you move forward in these days ahead, especially at this time of year. For us both to lose our mothers in the same year helps us to empathize...Jean at Easter and Margaret at Christmas. Our holidays will never be quite the same again. May God give you His special peace at this time.

Much love, Ken & Phyllis

“ Margaret could always make us laugh. This past spring she came to a baby shower I was having for my son's fiance. She gave out lots of baby advice and continued to keep us rolling in the aisles while we played games. She will be missed.
