

Margaret Dale Michau

March 18, 1946 - October 30, 2024

Margaret Dale Michau, 78 of Hurricane, West Virginia, passed away on October 30, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Born on March 18, 1946, in Bremerton, Washington, Margaret, affectionately known as Marge and Margie, was a beacon of joy and generosity, cherished by all who knew her. Marge was a spitfire and loved life! Dancing, listening to music, gathering with friends and family are the ways she loved to celebrate life.

Marge dedicated her career to helping others, first through her work with The ARC, where she formed many lifelong friendships, and later with the West Virginia Citizen Group, where she engaged in spirited discussions on political and social issues. Her commitment to service and community left a lasting impact.

She was a woman of profound spiritual beliefs, celebrating her faith in everyday moments and interactions. Marge's hobbies included reading, gardening, traveling throughout West Virginia, dining out, watching sports, and, most importantly, spending time with her cherished family.

Marge was preceded in death by the love of her life, Richard Bruce Zegeer, on July 1, 2015. She is also preceded by her parents, brother, and many aunts and uncles.

Surviving Marge is her daughter, Andrea L. Graziano and husband Philip, their daughters, Alexis and Annabella Graziano, along with pup, Allie; her son Dr. Kenneth J. Michau and wife Kate, along with children, Jake and Will Scarlett. Also, her life-long friends, that were just like family, Don and Sylvia Smith, of Pittsburgh, PA, and their children and grandchildren; sister, Lurah Houghtaling and husband Harry, their children and grandchildren of GA, FL and SC.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no services.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Hospice Care at www.hospicecarewv.org/make-a-donation/ or to the American Cancer Society, and St. Joseph's Indian School at give.stjo.org, supporting causes that were dear to Marge's heart.
