“ Cheryl, Joann and family. I am so very sorry about your mom's passing. Mom loves her so much. The three of them were like sisters growing up she tells me. Mom just isn't able to come up for the service or I would bring her. I will always have fond memories of your mom especially the time she welcomed me into their home and I got to meet and know Mason better. That was very special to me. Thanks to God that we have the opportunity to be forever with our loved ones if we will seek His forgiveness and follow Him. I pray that for all of you. If I don't make it tomorrow, please know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Love your cousin, Shirley.

“Mamaw, I love you more than words can describe. You raised me since I was a baby and I am honored to say you were my 'Mom' and a wonderful person inside and out. You would do anything for anyone and you were so generous to those around you. Your entire life, you helped so many people and I am so grateful to have had you in my life, in my Children's lives and our world will Forever be changed. I love you so so much and I miss you. I miss you so much. What comforts me the most is knowing your with Papaw and I know you can finally be Happy. Rest in Peace, Mamaw. We will see you soon. ❤️
