“ I am sadden to hear Mark Blood has passed. His dedication to Unipol Technology development and commercialization were greatly recognized.

Mark impressed many of us in manufacturing with his deep technical knowledge and willingness to provide assistance during many process development programs.

We lost a good one!

“ Mark was my coworker at Union Carbide. I admired and respect Mark as an engineer, but also as kind, wise man. We spent numerous hours developing new technology for Univation, which I and many other view as a highlight of our careers. Mark's analysis, suggestions, work ethic, and interpersonal skills all played key roles in the the development of that technology. I just can't say enough good things about Mark.

During spare moments on production trials, Mark would occasionally share stories about his family. And although I never met them, I know how much love and care he had for them. My sincerest condolences to Sara, his children and family.

Rest In Peace, Mark.

“ I was a coworker with Mark at Carbide and I had nothing but admiration for his work, attitude and friendship. I was there when he arrived and he was there when I left. I recall his stories about consuming large quantities of orange juice as he had to stay up with Pinky Guill as they worked on the Barge project in Argentina. He was proud of you, his family. I learned of his dedication to work and to you over his long illness. May God's blessings be with you during this time of change and sorrow. Ron Raether

*I can certainly attest to Mark's gentle patience and love. Whenever I would approach Mark with a question that he was best best able to explain, he always explained nonjudgmentally. It was always a pleasure to have a technical conversation with Mark!
