

Mark Edward Davis

October 9, 1962 - August 10, 2015

Mark Edward Davis, 52, of Hurricane passed away Monday, August 10, 2015. He was diagnosed with an aggressive form of brain cancer three years ago.

Born October 9, 1962 in Chattanooga, TN, he was a son of Oma Davis and the late Ronald Davis. He was also preceded in death by his grandparents, Emmett and Ruby Davis as well as Curtis and Mabel Craddock.

Mark was always kind and respectful to everyone and was talented in many ways, especially in working with his hands. He was immaculate in his personal and daily work which made him well-suited for his days in the engineering field. He became a Christian and was baptized at Mount Vernon Baptist Church where is currently a member.

Mark was well-liked and respected by his family and his work associates. He had many friends as his work took him to many places in the United States and abroad. He was a great teacher and mentor to his peers. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

In addition to his mother, Oma Davis of Pittsburgh, PA, Mark is survived by his loving wife of 23 years, Kim Sypolt Davis; his children, Christopher, Ashlee and Hannah Davis all of Hurricane; his brother, D. Scott Davis (Ingrid) of Morgantown.

Funeral service will be held at 11am Thursday, August 13, 2015 in the Sanctuary of Mount Vernon Baptist Church, 2150 Mount Vernon Road, Hurricane with Pastor Ron McClung officiating. Burial service will be conducted at 2:30pm Thursday at Highland Memory Gardens, Peck's Mill. Visitation will be held from 7-9pm Wednesday at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane.
