“ Lord, I just heard about Mark today and am stunned and heartbroken. Mark and I connected about 20 years ago through our shared interest in genealogy and learned early on that we were fourth cousins descended from the Civil War era Kiser-Burchett families of Southwestern Virginia. Mark was unfailingly kind, funny, smart, and sharing with his research (and everything else).

Simply a great guy, one in a million. I'm still in shock and will miss him terribly. My prayers go out to his wonderful family. It was obvious anytime we spoke that he thought the world of you all.

God bless you. What makes the pain a bit less agonizing is knowing for certain that we will all meet again in a happier place.

“ Mark was a brother and to say the least a great friend and incredible father and loyal husband and warrior. He will be greatly missed by me and a ton of ballers that had the pleasure of sharing the court with him. God bless Eddie and the entire Kiser and MCCure family.

“ Mark Kiser was a blessing to our Lindale Community and basketball family. Mark was a wonderful man, with a heart of gold, and he impacted everyone he meet ina positive way. He loved to watch his two daughters play basketball and he loved all the girls on the team. We will truly miss his presence, smile, and positive encouragement, but his memory will stay with us for a lifetime. We will also remember how he impacted our lives for the better. I will miss our weekly chats about Lindale basketball and how we could help the program. I will miss hearing him say before every game Let's Go Lindale and after every game Good Game Ladies you played hard. I am forever grateful for Mark Kiser and his family.

“ Coach Mark has always been special to me! I met Mark through coaching against some of his teams in basketball. He was always a great inspiration to me and all the coaches who came into contact with him. I will miss him and miss his messages to check on me. We are brothers in Christ and we both loved The Lord dearly always looking for ways to pass that love on to our players. Sure will miss you brother, but I know you are smiling down on us! Love you Mark!
