“ Mark was an adventurer and the consummate good guy - more importantly, he was a good man. Grace and I enjoyed many hours with him when he an Shirley came to see us, often with their daughters, whom Mark loved beyond words. We are so sorry to hear of his family and world losing him and wish we could have been of support during the difficult times of his sickness.

“ Dear Shirley and Family,

I am so sorry to hear of Mark's passing. I worked with him for many years at the Corps and he was simply one of the best of the best. He was a great leader, co-worker and friend, and he had the compassion and gift of being able to relate to anyone and any issue. He was so often that ray of sunshine to so many who needed to have their spirits lifted. I will always remember his unique sense of humor and how he would expertly use it to defuse many an awkward or tense situation, or to simply make you laugh and make your day a little brighter. He really was one of the good guys and he will be missed. You all are in my thoughts and prayers and may God bless you.

“ I am so profoundly sad to hear about Mark's passing. I worked with Mark as part of a team for only a relatively short time, from 2007 through 2009, but was extremely impressed with his knowledge and ability to work through the bureaucracy to get things done. We also share a similar sense of humor so we related well to each other outside the office. I thoroughly enjoyed his company and relied on his advice. The Corps' lost a valued member and I feel like I've lost a good friend and trusted colleague.

My wife, Maryann, and I wish to express our sincerest condolences to Mark's family. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Shirley and Family,

I share in your sorrow at the passing of Mark. I worked with him for many years at the Corps. Mark was a people person so the roles of principal and Chief of Human resources were a good fit for him. He possessed an analytical mind and was quick-witted. His office was adorned with family photos of children and grandchildren demonstrating the importance of and commitment to his family.

Employees and supervisors who needed advice and counsel often sought his advice, not only from a regulatory perspective, but as a person concerned about others who assisted people in resolving problems and conflict. For example, those in the Corps recall how he relentlessly and successfully sought to place his employees in other positions when regionalization of the human resources office threatened to force them to move out of the area.

I am a better person for having known Mark.

May God strengthen and sustain all of you through this most difficult time in your lives. Mark will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

*Very sincerely,
