“ Unfortunately, I wasn't able to attend the funeral today, so I will pay my respects here. Mark, it was truly an enjoyable experience working with you at the casino. You always had an upbeat attitude and seemed happy and eager to work. I will miss you.. My favorite memory of you is when I was driving on Old 35 and my car broke down, and when I pulled off to the side, there you happened to be, selling eggs. That was a Saturday morning, during May, I believe. Rest in peace, friend.-- James R, A.K.A "Turtle"
