

Martha Susan Cooper

April 21, 1932 - July 29, 2014

Martha Susan Cooper, 82, of St. Albans passed away peacefully Tuesday, July 29, 2014 at Hubbard Hospice House, Charleston of apparent heart failure.

Born April 21, 1932 in Spencer, she was the daughter of the late Joe and Bernice Carrico. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Allen V. Cooper, Jr., her daughter, Stephanie Dawson, as well as her dear Aunt Bess.

Sue was a longstanding member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church, St. Albans where she was involved with the United Methodist Women and her Sunday school class, the Crusaders.

During a time when women were rarely small-business owners, Sue proudly owned and operated Timeless Treasures, a well-known antique shop in St. Albans. She also was a former Lab Tech with Union Carbide. She also was active with the Red Hat Society and the St. Albans Garden Club.

Surviving are her son, Jason Cooper (Andrea) of Charleston, SC; her son-in-law, Joe Dawson (Jane) of St. Louis, MO; her grandson, Brandon Dawson (Katie) of Charlotte, NC as well as her beloved Rosie the cat.

A service to celebrate her life will be held at 2pm Friday, August 1, 2014 at St.

Andrew United Methodist Church, St. Albans with Rev. Loretta Isaiah officiating.

“ So sorry to hear of Sue's passing. I have always regretted losing touch with her after I helped her pack up and purchase her unwanted items when she moved. She was an inspiration and I'm sure will be missed by many.

“ I will remember the many miles traveled in my car taking Sue to SC to visit her son on my way to classes in Florida. We discussed many things. I so enjoyed the wit and wisdom and graciousness of Sue. One of the world's problems that we solved along the way was the realization that all of the world's problems had to do with greed. I will miss Sue very much. Julie Janisch
