“ I was deeply sadden to hear about the loss of a very special person. Mary was great mentor to me, I helped her in the office and she showed me a lot while working at Carver. I missed her a lot when she left.

She was the most caring, sweetest, nicest person to ever have the privilege to know. Most of all she was my friend. We both shared the same wedding anniversary.

Mary always had a smile for everyone.

We talked a lot about our families and I know she is with her loved ones. I will never forget you - Diana Pritt

“ What a wonderful lady Mary was. I first met her when Bobby moved near Elkins and she came to Cheri and Bobby's wedding....She was such a sweet woman and beautiful. I saw her on occasion when she would come to visit and when Cheri's girls got married. I was there when her dear son (and my friend) passed...I am sure there was a rejoicing in heaven on Friday afternoon when Mary went to be with her Husband, Son and Daughter and all those gone on before. Prayers of comfort and peace to all those left behind.

“ From: Nancy Waddell---- I remember when Aunt Mary and Uncle Bobby Sr. along with cousins Debbie, Becky, Teresa and Bobby Jr. lived near Orlando Florida. Aunt Mary was so Nice to let Our Family live with them until our house was ready to move into. I really Loved those Times Together. I Enjoyed swimming, playing cards, getting up and getting ready for school and Our Family Dinners. I Loved when Aunt Mary Doss would tell us stories about Her, my Dad, Aunt Margaret, Aunt Ruth, Uncle Marion, Uncle Gene, Uncle Wally and Uncle Floyd growing up in West Virginia. The stories were Touching and Showed Family Endurance and Love. Your Mom was such a Loving, Caring Christian Lady with a Beautiful Smile, Uplifting, Fun Laugh and a Kind Heart. Doug and I are sending Debbie, Teresa and All of their/Our Family Prayers and Condolences. But Aunt Mary is in Heaven with her Beloved Husband, Uncle Bobby Sr., Sweet Daughter, Becky and Caring Son, Bobby Jr. along with my Dad, Ken and All of Our Family who have journeyed to their Eternal Life. She is in Very Good Company. Your Mom Mary Doss will Always Be Remembered.

“ It is with great sadness and sorrow that my family and I were made aware of the untimely passing of your Mother and my Aunt Mary Doss. We send to you our sympathies and condolences in this difficult time of loss and grieving. Although her loving and compassionate physical presence leaves a great void in the lives of her Earthly family; we can all fill that emptiness with the fond and happy memories that we share with one another in her everlasting, spiritual presence. She would encourage us to celebrate her blessed life not with tears of sorrow but, rather, smiles of joy and laughter as she joins with her Heavenly family. May God Bless and Comfort You All.
