“ I am so sad. This woman as many know, was just the best. She was always cheerful & always had a kind word. Would make you laugh so hard! She taught me many things about being a wife & just about being a good person. She always found the good side of everything with a wicked sense of humor! I pray this family finds some comfort in the days to come. I love you all. Barb Lekas

I loved Mary so much. She was so sweet & so funny. Even though she had 8 children to care for after she married Dick, she volunteered to babysit for my 3 kids when I moved home & got a job. When she met my new husband, Eddie Hereford, she remarked, "He's so pretty that I'd like to take him home and put him on my mantle." She was hilarious!!! I last saw her at my mom's 90th birthday party in May. She wasn't feeling well then, but made it a point to come see my mom in the nursing home & help celebrate her birthday with her. She was some kind of lady. I will miss her so! 😭

“I love my sweet Aunt Mary. She and my Aunt Geneva and my mother and I took quite a few trips together to different places and she was so fun to be around and I loved traveling with her.

She was my rock when my mother passed by talking to me every day back a few years ago. She was a loving, caring, sweet soul that I am going to miss terribly but oh the precious memories.

My prayers are with her family. Love you all.
